FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Price

The price of the business is made up as follows:

Goodwill	$ 327,000
Plant & Equipment/Fixtures & Fittings	$ 25,000
Vito Van	$ 35,000
Total	$ 387,000
Stock (approximate)	$ 0
Total Price Including Stock	$ 387,000

The vendor advises that depreciation is an allowable tax expense of the business and bears little relevance to the actual market value of Plant & equipment. When setting the selling price of the business, an allowance has been made after considering the age, quality and capability of the fixtures, fittings, plant & equipment to perform its task given its current and future use/benefit within the business. Because assets have been fully depreciated does not mean they no longer have any resale value to the business.

Where assets have not been fully depreciated the depreciation of those assets, can be transferred to the balance sheet of the purchaser and become a deduction for the purchaser.

Sale Process - General Information for Purchasers

Offer

Once an offer has been discussed and verbally agreed to it is important that written confirmation be received by Advance Business Brokers. Contracts will then be prepared and provided for signing.

Deposit

A deposit will be collected at the time of contract. This is usually 10% of purchase price. Less than 10% will be discussed with vendor at time of negotiation.

The deposit will be held in the Trust Account of Advance Business Brokers until settlement. A deposit is required to show commitment to the offer and "Consideration" on the contract. The account details for payment are:

The Trust Account details for Advance Real Estate & Business Brokers Pty Ltd is:

Advance Real Estate and Business Brokers Pty Ltd - REBA Trust Account TC 63767 BSB 086 918 Account Number: 12515 3895

Real Estate Trust accounts are guaranteed by the WA Government and therefore the deposit is secure. The Real Estate Act also covers both vendors and purchasers with regard to Trust accounts.

GST

GST is not usually payable on the sale of a business if the business is sold as a going concern. The new owner must be registered for GST prior to purchasing the business. There are other criteria set by the ATO in this regard to deem the business to be defined as a "Going Concern". Please refer to the ATO, your solicitor or accountant for further clarification.

Where commercial property is involved both parties MUST seek advice from their accountant as to confirmation on whether any GST is applicable.

Stamp Duty – WA

Stamp duty is payable on the purchase of businesses in WA. To calculate the rate of stamp duty applicable to the purchase of this business contact the WA State Revenue Department or go to their website https://rol.osr.wa.gov.au/Calculators/faces/Calculators?_afLoop=170898554234337&_afWindowMode=0&_adf.ctrl-state=4ybtpqqbe_4

Your settlement agent arranges as part of the settlement process the collection and payable to the Stamp Duty office. If you have any questions in relation to the breakdown or the amount due contact the Revenue Department – Stamp Duty section of WA Government.

It is very important that the Entity provided to go on the contract e.g. Name of Company, Company and Trust, Partnership etc must be absolutely correct. If even one letter is incorrect the Department of Revenue may charge stamp duty if the entity details need to be changed. Contracts once signed cannot be re-issued without advice to the Office of State Revenue.

Contracts

The purchaser should undertake due diligence to the best of their ability prior to making an offer. A due diligence clause, usually 14 days may be included in contracts where further due diligence is required. Due diligence does not include:

- Access to the sellers personal tax returns, personal financial information or their actual lodged tax document;
- To the ATO where other financial information is included from other investments, Trusts etc.

A contract is drawn up by Advance Business Brokers, a solicitor, or in some cases the Franchisor. This will first be forwarded to the vendor for their inspection and then presented to the purchaser for signing prior to the seller signing. This process can take a couple of weeks depending on the complexity of the business.

A contract may also be subject to finance. The standard finance clause is 45 days for businesses.

Copy of the Full lease of the premises with all amendments, extensions in writing attached.

Copy of any lease or hire agreements being transferred to purchaser

Vehicle Registration papers

A complete final list of all fixtures & fittings and plant & equipment that are being sold as assets with the business. These would include e.g. air conditioner in the wall that a previous or current lessee has installed but not been paid for by the landlord.

Copy of business registration name with ASIC

Copy of liquor license

Copy of Franchise agreement if applicable – sometimes supplied after contract

Disclosure Document from Franchisor if available (Franchisors often take a couple of weeks to produce these documents)

Copy of Child Care license

Leases

Most contracts will be subject to the transfer/assignment of lease or the negotiation of a new lease on terms acceptable to the purchaser. This is covered in nearly all states under specific Commercial Real Estate Acts. Child Care Centres as a service industry are not covered under the Commercial leases ACT in WA so approval is at the discretion of landlords within reason or the terms outlined in the current lease.

Where time is of the essence, the vendor or the vendor's settlement agent should notify the landlord or their representative in writing as soon as contracts have been signed. This should be done in writing as the landlord must approve or decline the buyer.

It is then up to the purchaser or their representative, to expedite the transfer or new lease.

Most commercial leases require a bond or bank guarantee for between 1 - 6 months rent in advance. The commercial norm is 3 months rent in advance. Bonds may vary between different applicants. This is in addition to the first month's rent in advance.

Once the landlord or managing agent has approved the buyer/applicant the Department of Communities require a letter from the landlord/managing agent confirming the approval to lease.

The following may be required: - Business references – ie. Bank manager, accountant, previous work references or suppliers

- o Business Plan
- o Qualifications – experience
- o Statement of financial situation
- o Copies of Bank Accounts
- o Transfer of lease document
- o Bond
- o Rent in advance – this can vary from 1 month to 6 months for shopping centres
- o Guarantors
- o Credit checks
- o Where finance is involved Right Of Entries may be required by the Bank providing finance

Where the current vendor has a good relationship with the landlord or their representative it can help this procedure, if they can assist the purchaser with this process.

Where the business is a franchise, the lease is often held under License with the Franchise agreement and the Franchisor will handle the transfer of lease requirements.

Transfer of Lease - The Lessor is required to expedite the transfer of lease as soon as possible. It is important that as soon as contracts are signed that this process be started. Lessors may require extensive credit checks, financial information, private guarantees, business and personal references before agreeing to assign a lease.

Once the landlord or managing agent has approved the buyer/applicant the Department of Communities require a letter from the landlord/managing agent confirming the approval to lease.

Department of Communities is currently quoting 45 days for transfer of license to be processed. If the buyer does not have a Child Care provider number this will take up to an additional 90 days which must be secured prior to applying for transfer of service license.

A Right of Entry is required by all banks to be signed by a lessor where business finance is being provided. It is important that a seller check with their landlord as early as possible to ascertain their consent and provide them with the ROE document for signing so no delays happen close to settlement.

Assets - PPSR Register

The Personal Property Securities Act 2009 created a PPSR Personal Property Security Register for all forms of property “other than real estate”. It is vital that your settlement agent buyers and sellers check this register to ensure that all items on the register relating to the business or maybe associated with the Company selling the business be investigated. It may be necessary for these items to be removed from the register prior to settlement. If this is left to the last minute it can cause considerable delays.

Settlement

Prior to settlement you should consider all of the following as to whether they need to be actioned and when –

- Change over of phone, fax, mobile phone numbers, electricity, gas, Internet connections and website keys to take-over websites and domain names.
- Purchasers MUST set up their own new EFTPOS/merchant facilities.
- Organise bank accounts.
- Ezi-debit and other bank services

Letters of offer of employment to staff. Check all entitlements, superannuation, long service leave have been paid by the seller as per the General Conditions of contract. Refer to your settlement agent to ensure these amounts are correct and been attended to by the seller. Letters of offer to staff should be provided ideally, on the same day as the letters of termination by the seller to ensure a smooth transition. Check with Fair Work Australia or Wage line for specific details.

Transfer of domain names and websites with any keys and passwords that are required.

Hand-over period can vary with each business. The average is 5 - 10 working days.

This is provided at NO COST to the purchaser and is part of general conditions in a standard Business for Sale Contract. It is to provide the purchaser with a reasonable understanding of the business to help ensure a smooth continuance of the day – to day running, names of suppliers and introduction to regular customers. During this hand-over period the seller is there to guide and assist by providing information to continue running the business. The seller is not there during the hand-over period to actually “work” in the business and is under no circumstances to handle money.

The broker is not responsible for obtaining or verifying Council or Government licenses or permits associated with the business. These are required to be obtained by your lawyer or settlement agent.

It is the responsibility of your lawyer or settlement agent to check the PPSR register early in the contract process.

It is the responsibility of the seller to notify the landlord and request application for assignment. It is the responsibility of the buyer to complete the application with all required documentation and submit promptly. The buyer or their legal representative to follow up the assignment and execute any paperwork.

Rarely do businesses actually settle on the date set in the contract due to the complexities of business sales.. If any issues arise during the contract period it is helpful if the settlement agent informs the broker. If we are not informed of a problem it is very difficult to do anything about it.

Settlement can vary from business to business, but generally three months from contract signing is the norm for Child Care Centres.

We hope you have found the above useful.
